

Please protect consumers rights to use, copy and reference digital content that they have purchased on what ever device at whatever time they choose. Proceeding 02-230 would unfairly limit this right without actually providing the protection from unlawful copyright infringement that content creators seek.